It was difficult to harmonize the opposing factions, but finally resolutions were agreed to expressing the opinion that the organization of the Dayton and Southeastern Railroad remain intact, and that Springfield and Pomeroy be reached by new and separate organizations.

The delegates went to Xenia on Wednesday, and a most enthusiastic meeting was held at the City Hall, in the evening. The following is the report to the Cincinnati Commercial:

Colonel Vance, of Gallipolis; Irvin Dungan, J. H. C. Cobb and Colonel Chapman, of Jackson; Martin Schilder, of Chillicothe; D. Allen, of Lebanon; Judge Jordon, of Dayton, and Colonel Hurbert were the speakers. Each gen-tleman spoke enthusiastically of the prospects of the route, and the revenue from the road. Gallipolis wanted an from the road. Gallipolis wanted an outlet, Jackson had wealth to give away, cothe had been bitten twice, but would do its share, and Judge Jordon said Dayton was beginning to take an interest in the movement, and if the delegates would visit them Friday, they would learn then what that city would road was the best of all the routes to the coal fields for Dayton. The meeting lasted until after 10 o'clock, and the interest was sustained till the close.

On Thursday the delegates went to Springfield. The Cincinnati Gazette furnishes the proceedings at this place as follows: The grand movement for the construction of the Narrow-gauge Railroad to the coal mines of Jackson county has taken definite shape, and the success of weeks past a Committee from this place has investigated the proposed routes, and to-day a large number of delegates from Chillicothe, Gallipolis, Pomeroy, Jackson, Washington C. H., and South Charleston are here attending a large mass-meeting in the interest of the establishment of this road. A large audience assembled in the Opera-house this evening, and chose Judge White of the Supreme Court as Chairman of the the Supreme Court as Chairman of the meeting. The Committee made their report, which was enthusiastically received. This being done, General Keifer offered resolutions which called forth a number of speeches. The discussion was participated in by Col. Hurlbert, Messrs. Chapman, Horton, Hon. Benj. Neff, Col. Vance, John H. Thomas, and others: each and every Thomas, and others; each and ever one favoring the proposed enterprise. The Dayton & Southwestern project is entirely out of the question with the people here. If Springfield is to have a coal road, it will be one direct to the mines and not a branch to some other

At a late hour the meeting adopted the and appointed a Committee of six citi-zens from this city to select corporators, and proceed to the organization of company. The meeting was harmonious, and the friends of the road are very san-
